OLA Ride Booking Analytics - Insights, Findings and Recommendations

Key Findings

• Booking Performance: 40.54K bookings, 25.21K successful rides, booking value ■13.76M.

• Cancellation Analysis: 10.96% cancellation rate; customer and driver cancellations impacted ride completion.

• Vehicle Performance: High-performing vehicle categories generated stronger revenue while economy segments drove greater booking volume.

• Customer Experience: Ratings varied across vehicle categories, indicating differences in service quality.

• Payment Behavior: A few payment methods generated most booking value.

• Demand & Utilization Trends: Peak demand windows identified for pricing and allocation opportunities.

• Operational Efficiency: Driver availability and acceptance patterns influenced booking success rates.

Business Insights

• Revenue Growth Opportunity: Reducing the 10.96% cancellation rate can increase realized revenue.

• Vehicle Mix Optimization: Prioritize high-performing vehicle categories during peak periods.

• Customer Retention Opportunity: Address booking friction points to improve completion rates.

• Driver Utilization Improvements: Enhance driver allocation, incentives, and availability management.

• Payment Strategy Enhancement: Use popular payment channels for loyalty and cashback campaigns.

Recommendations

• Investigate major cancellation reasons and implement proactive ride confirmation.

• Increase driver availability during peak periods with performance incentives.

• Optimize vehicle allocation based on demand trends.

• Improve service quality in lower-rated categories and run retention campaigns.

• Use demand insights for dynamic pricing, promotions, and payment rewards.

Executive Summary

• The analysis of 40.54K bookings and ■13.76M booking value identified opportunities in cancellation reduction, vehicle utilization, driver performance, customer experience, and payment optimization. Improving booking completion rates and optimizing high-performing vehicle categories offer the greatest potential for revenue growth and operational efficiency.